Dedication

We, the publications class of 1962, owe to the merchants of our community a great debt. Without their financial assistance each year, the publication of this book would be almost impossible.

It is with much pleasure that we dedicate this book, THE BULLDOG, to each businessman and patron for his contributions, support, and interest in this book. Your loyalty to Southwest is deeply appreciated.

Superintendent and Secretary

It has been said "that any political state that wishes to perpetuate itself must teach the young people the belief which underlie the political theory in practice." The continuance of the American way of life depends upon how well we have educated you and how much you were willing to accept that education. At one time in the American society the three R's were sufficient. Today this is not true--more and more of your time must be devoted to education.

To the senior class--this is only the beginning. To the underclassmen--may the next year or years be one of growth in physical strength and mental knowledge.

May the pages of this annual remind you of the four happy years spent in Southwest Harrison High.

Cecil A. Elliott, Superintendent
Mrs. Fern Klindt, Secretary

Board of Education

Mr. Glen Daily, president; Dr. Albert F. Nibbe, Mr. John Klindt, vice-president, Mr. Ervin Osborn, secretary; Mr. Jewel Maize, Mr. Cleo Mock, Mr. John Nally, treasurer.

Principal - Secretary

W. R. Culp, principal, is assisted by Mrs. Max Davis, secretary. Both faculty and students are very happy to have Mr. Culp back at his old job. Mr. Culp, who has given twenty-nine years of loyal service to our school, will long be remembered for his patience and untiring efforts to help each and every student.

Speech Club

SPEECH CLUB OFFICERS--David Mackey, Reporter; Danny Haskell, Parliamentarian; Jim Ray, President; Donald Butcher, Vice-President. The Secretary, Bob Daily, was absent.

The Speech Club was newly formed this year with the purpose of promoting better speech at Southwest. The club presented a Christmas assembly which was thoroughly enjoyed by the student body.

It is the hope of every member that this club will continue to grow in size and prominence and will influence the student body towards better speech.

SECOND SEMESTER EVENTS

January	22	Change for second semester classes.
January	31	New excuse found for missing school. Send one boy to the salebarn after a sick friend. Lose the way back, boys?
February	1	The State F. F. A. officers visited our F. F. A. chapter.
February	1	The Bulldog king and queen were nominated. Who is it? Look in the front of the Bulldog and see.
February	2	F. F. A. boys went to the annual John Deer Show.
February	13	The "A" team enjoyed a spring vacation earlier than the rest of the basketball players.
February	13	Even though it wasn't Friday 13, it proved fatal for the four girls who skipped school.
February	14	The parents of four freshmen boys would have a small-sized fit if they knew their little "darlings" had been sent to the office. Was the bell early or were you late, boys?
February	14	Candy and cards were exchanged by the sweethearts as a result of cupid's target practice.
February	16	Last basketball game of the season.
February	19-23	The Regional Tournament was held at Albany.
February	20	F. F. A. presented an assembly for the student body. Very nice, boys.
March	1	The senior band presented a concert for the student body.
March	21	The Junior High School Band presented a concert at the grade school.
March	23-24	Speech Festival at Maryville. We entered a play, radio reading, and prose and poetry.
April	1	Most students begin to show signs of having contracted spring fever.
April	5, 6, 7	Annual Spring Music Festival at Maryville. Many groups and ensembles went and returned with good results.
April	11	Annual style show given by the Home Economics Department and Industrial Arts exhibit by the Industrial Arts Department.
April	28	State Music Festival at Columbia.
May	5	Everyone dressed in his finest evening clothes and attended the Junior Prom. There was dancing and refreshments for everyone.
May	15	Students eagerly await the distribution of the yearbook
May	20	After several successful investigations, we predict that Mr. Culp will soon hang out his shingle which will read "W. R. Culp, Private Detective."

Last week of school--Seniors try the patience of several people exercising their privileges during senior privilege week.
